

Get the amounts
you're entitled to.
A volunteer can help!

INCOME TAX ASSISTANCE

VOLUNTEER PROGRAM
SINCE 1988

You may be entitled to income tax refunds or other payments.

See the table below for the maximum amounts you may be entitled to (except for the solidarity tax credit, which are basic amounts) if you file a federal and provincial income tax return. Note that the amounts may vary depending on your situation and the cost of living index. Contact the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) and Revenu Québec for more information.

	Refunds and amounts (per year)	Person 65 or over with a spouse	Single person 65 or over
Federal amounts	GST/HST credit (paid quarterly)	$612 (based on income)	$467 (based on income)
	Old Age Security* (paid monthly)	$8,226*
	Guaranteed Income Supplement* (paid monthly)	$12,288* (based on situation and income)	$12,288*
	Pension income amount	$2,000
	Age amount	$7,898
	Canada caregiver credit	$7,525
	Home accessibility expenses	$20,000
	Disability tax credit	$8,870
Québec amounts	Solidarity tax credit	$618 (may vary based on your situation)	$309 (may vary based on your situation)
	Tax credit for home-support services for seniors (70 and over)	$18,360 (per couple, maximum annual credit amount)	$9,180
	Senior assistance tax credit (70 and over)	$822 (maximum annual credit amount if spouse is eligible)	$411
	Independent living tax credit for seniors (70 and over)	20% (of expenses incurred by you or your spouse)	20% (of expenses incurred)
	Tax credit for seniors' activities (70 and over)	$40 (per claimant)
	Tax credit for career extension	$1,650 (per person, based on income)
	Grant for seniors to offset a municipal tax increase	$500 (current assessment roll)
	Shelter allowance (paid monthly)	$1,200

* For more information, contact Service Canada at 1 800 277-9914.

Have a volunteer help you complete your income tax returns like thousands of other people in Québec. It's free and you may be entitled to the above amounts!

Call us to learn where income tax return preparation sessions are being held:

Canada Revenue Agency: 1 800 959-8281

Revenu Québec: 1 800 267-6299